ok but I m pretty sure on the album the A s are Abars as well and I missed a variation around the F#m, let me know if you have any ideas!

       E
Waiting for a train
   A   F#m   Abar   E
Going nowhere in a nowhere station

Staying up last night
        A   F#m   Abar   E
Going nowhere with my trains of thought

Sleeping with your boy
       F#m   Abar
Going nowhere in a long distance relation
Blinded of your senses
        F#m
By the fear of unrequited love
F#m   Abar   C#m
Once more I woke up in the moonlight
F#m   Abar   C#m   Ebar C#m
Once more our paths crossed through the night
F#m   Abar
And a moment s hesitation
     C#m   Ebar C#m
Your silent invocation
F#m   Abar
But you shielded me from your glow
      C#m   Ebar C#m
Like a moth against your window
F#m   Abar   C#m   Abar
And I m too shy to stop you in your tracks

F#m        Abar                E
Oh you leave me in the dark

Drifting in my boat
         A                F#m    Abar     E
Going nowhere with my aspirations

You and me connected
    A                 F#m     Abar     E
Unexpected in our drifting thoughts

But you still see him
          F#m              Abar                 E
And I am sinking in the storm of separation

Blinded of my senses
        F#m             B7
By the fear of unrequited love
