Tuning: Standard

A                      B
The bridge is all crumbled.
                         C#m
The water soaks into rocks
A                      B                      C#m
that fell at the bottom of the road (At the end of the town)
A                      B
The town that we lived in.
                         C#m
The memories shaken apart from the weeds that grow

E
Over the sidewalks,
Asus                                      E                      C#m
Running away from the streets we knew,
E
Sidewalks,
Asus                                      E                      C#m
Like the time we thought was made for you.

Notes: I only spent about 2 minutes figuring this out, its easy to play.
