

The Weary Song
Strawbs

[Verse]

G Dm Em D
The soldier smiling softly sings a song of sad farewell
G Dm Em D
As the train pulls out to take him far from home____
G Dm Em D
His children waving gaily without knowing he has gone
D
Now you know what I feel

[Chorus]

C D
And the thoughts that always greet you
C D
Every morning when you rise
C D
They never ever change, they re just the same
C D
When you re weary to extreme
C D
And you never laugh or cry
C D
You re just a sheet of glass inside a frame

[Verse]

G Dm Em D
The best days of your life are when you don t know right from wrong
G Dm Em D
When the fantasies around you seem so real____
G Dm Em D
And reality is really as fantastic as your dreams
D
Now you know how I feel

[Chorus]

C D
And the thoughts that always greet you
C D
Every morning when you rise
C D
They never ever change, they re just the same
C D
When you re weary to extreme
C D
And you never laugh or cry
C D
You re just a sheet of glass inside a frame

[Verse]

G Dm Em D
So the train pulls out forever, just a whistle and it s gone
G Dm Em D
And the station disappears before your eyes____
G Dm Em D
In time the rails will rust and you ll forget that you ve been there
D
Now you know how I feel

[Chorus]

C D
And the thoughts that always greet you
C D
Every morning when you rise
C D
They never ever change, they re just the same
C D
When you re weary to extreme
C D
And you never laugh or cry
C D
You re just a sheet of glass inside a frame
