Bbm   F#   G#
Got a feeling you were alone and on the run

Bbm   F#   G#
with your suitcase filled with razorblades and turpentine sad eyes

Bbm   F#   G#
of a scarlet glazed in promises made too divine to be real

Bbm   F#   G#
a runaway too shiftless to know what is wrong don t make it right

F#   G#   Bbm
and sometimes I wonder if I knew you could I change you or

F#   G#   C# (hold for 2 bars)
would you be the same to me right now

(repeat the Bbm, Bbm, F#, G# intro)

Bbm   F#   G#
your reason to live became a reason to die and now you re gone

Bbm   F#   G#
I think about you in black in white faded news paint still life memory

Bbm   F# (onebar) G# (onebar)
of a broken body in a cheap perfume disguise

Bbm   F#   G#
well I just wanna know you found some peace before you left this place

F#   G#   Bbm
well it s alright to be afraid of what your eyes can t hide with both hands tied

F#                              G#                                    Bbm
did you sink yourself, did you cheat yourself, how did you stray so far to end up here

F#                      G#                      Bbm
to know yourself is to destroy yourself, and what you are you could not hide

F#              G#              C# (two bars)
a clue is all I have to understand

For the break down and solo play the Bbm, Bbm, F# G# riff.

C#                              Ebm                             F#
sound and bled instant fame in red now you re in the spotlight again

C#                              Ebm             F#
a different tale with a darker twist but for sure you knew that you would always be the star

C#                              Ebm                             F#
no lost innocence because there never was just you and the world

C#                              Ebm             F#                 F# F#   F# G# G# G#
no fairy tale could ever end like this itÃ-s just another bad luck tale

C#                              Ebm             F#
all used up and on the run from you

Outro is Bbm, Bbm, F#, G#
