Riff 1

You ve lived a hard life a self made prisoner.
You ve built your house upon the sand.
It sharpens the dull knife.
That cuts and makes you endure
                    F        E        A
The scars that label you a broken man

[Chorus:]

D                                F
You re Bleeding from inside out
Bb                              G
Wounded beyond your own recognition.
D                                F
You re bandaged in fear and doubt
Bb                              G
Brought to your knees by a life and death collision.

Riff 1

You see what you want to see
A child in make believe
You rule the land where you are king
There s rain that washes clean
The soul that stains your legacy
There is redemption - it s your destiny!

D                                F
You re Bleeding from inside out
Bb                              G
Wounded beyond your own recognition.
D                                F
You re bandaged in fear and doubt
Bb                              G
Brought to your knees by a life and death collision.

[Solo]

[Repeat Chorus]
