

As Bad As This
Styx

I noticed no one had any chords for this song and was deeply displeased, so I learned it by ear.

Written by John Curulewski
Lead Vocals by John Curulewski

Intro: E D A E
E Em
Did you ever in your life before
D A E
Feel as bad as this?
E Em
Did you ever in good time think
D A E
My life had gone amiss?
Em A
Now I feel I've been unfair
Em A
cause I catch you hanging there.
E Em
Did you ever in your life before
D A E
Feel as bad as this?

[Same Chords throughout song]

God knows I tried a half a year
But it didn't do no good.
My damndest try to make it work,
I knew it never would.
Now there's nothin' wrong with you,

And there's nothing you could ever do.
God knows I tried a half a year
But it didn't do no good.

The times were good,
But over now,
A pleasant memory.
I'm sorry, there's another face
One that's close to me.
You know about what I learned
And there's no stone left unturned.
The times were good,
But over now,

A pleasant memory. (sigh)
[Stops]

But don t sit down on the Plexiglas toilet yeah

[Same Chords for rest]

A boy of 5 stands close to the toilet
Holds the lid up with one hand
Won t let go the lid for fear that
On his banana it will land
Don t sit down on the Plexiglas toilet yeah

Boy goes up he eats the enchilada
With the sauce that burns the heart
Family comes to visit family
Momma says don t belch and fart

Don t sit on the Plexiglas toilet
Said the momma to her son
Wipe the butt clean with the paper
Make it nice for everyone
But don t sit down on the Plexiglas toilet yeah

Everybody Sing!

Don t sit on the Plexiglas toilet
Said the momma to her son
Wipe the butt clean with the paper
Make it nice for everyone
But don t sit down on the Plexiglas toilet yeah

Don t sit on the Plexiglas toilet
Said the momma to her son
Wipe the butt clean with the paper
Make it nice for everyone
But don t sit down on the Plexiglas toilet yeah

Fun Song.
