

Farther I Go
Sublime

This song is from the 2006, "Rarities - Everything Under the Sun" Album that was released around the 10 year anniversary of Bradley's passing. I can't believe that nobody has tabbed this yet, so I thought I would get it done as it is such an awesome song and displays Bradley's love for Punk Rock|it only took me about 10 minutes to tab this. I have played this right along with the song numerous times and I can assure you that it is perfect. I play them as full barre chords, but I suppose that they could be played as either open chords or power chords|whatever your preference|either way, enjoy! Sublime is the best band ever!
