C#m        B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
When He took the three disciples to the mountainside to pray

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
His countenance was modified, his clothing was aflame

B                                Bm                                A
Two men appeared; Moses and Elijah came

C#m
They were at his side

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
The prophecy, the legislation spoke of whenever he would die

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
Then there came a word; Of what he should accomplish on the day

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
Then Peter spoke, to make of them a tabernacle place

B                                Bm                                A
A cloud appeared in glory as an accolade

C#m
They fell on the ground

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
A voice arrived, the voice of God, The face of God, covered in a cloud

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
What he said to them; The voice of God: the most beloved son

B                                Bm                                A                                C#m
Consider what he says to you, consider what s to come

B                                Bm                                A
The prophecy was put to death; Was put to death,

C#m
and so will the Son

B                                Bm                                A                                E
And keep your word, disguise the vision till the time has come

Bm D A E

Bm D A E

Bm            D                            A                            E
Lost in the cloud, a voice: Have no fear! We draw near!

Bm            D                            A                            E
Lost in the cloud, a sign: Son of man! Turn your ear!

Bm            D                            A                            E
Lost in the cloud, a voice: Lamb of God! We draw near!

Bm            D                            A                            E
Lost in the cloud, a sign: Son of man! Son of God!
