

Hello
Sugarland

Capo 3

Intro: C - Fmaj7 - G x 2

Am Fmaj7
I was born in the heart of a hurricane season
G Am7
In the house where my mamma was raised
G Fmaj7
That old September wind feels just like a long lost friend
G
And I...

(Chorus:)

C Fmaj7 G
I want to run through those cottonwood trees
C Fmaj7 G
Fall asleep in a big bed of fresh fallen leaves
Am G Fmaj7
And in every wind that blows there s a song of letting go
G (C-Fmaj7]-G x 2)
It s not goodbye, it s hello

Am Fmag7
When we met underneath the blue skies of summer
G Am7
And those summer skies turn into fall
G Fmaj7
That sweet September wind made us so much more than friends
G
One Night...

(Chorus:)

C Fmaj7 G
And we ran through those cottonwood trees
C Fmaj7 G
We made love in a big bed of fresh fallen leaves
Am G Fmaj7
And in every wind that blows there s an innocence that knows
G C
It s not goodbye, it s hello

Fmaj7 G
 In the moment that one thing ends
Fmaj7 G
 Is the same time that one begins
Am G
 And return as we must
Am7 Em - Fmaj7 - G
 We are ashes to dust, amen.

Solo:

Am - Fmag7 - G - Am7 - G - Fmag7 - G

Am Fmaj7
 When the days of my youth have all faded
G Am7
 And the memories are all that remain
G Fmaj7
 Let that old September wind take me back to where I ve been G
 So I...

(Chorus:)

C Fmaj7 G
 I can run through those cottonwood trees
C Fmaj7 G
 And remember the smell of those fresh fallen leaves
Am G Fmaj7
 Now in every wind that blows there s a part of me that knows
G (C - Fmaj7 - G x 2)
 It s not goodbye, it s hello
