It Takes Time It Takes Two
Sugarplum Fairy

Well this is my first tab so the G seems to be kind of wrong
...but for beginners it s pretty easy to play.So I hope you like it anyway ;D

If anybody finds a better alternative for G send it to murkelchen_zerche@gmx.de

Maybe it could be B7 , just try it.

[INTRO 2x]
```
A                D
To make our comeback
                     A
You better come back
                     D
To make our comeback
                     A
You better come back
```

VERS
        A
Can you hear me?
              D
Iâ€™m singing to you loud
      E
I am locked in my basement
G                         A
And I donâ€™t know if Iâ€™ll get out

         A
Can you see me
                   D
If you saw me you would cry
      E
Iâ€™ll die for getting better
        G
I will write you love letters
A
Iâ€™ll try
```

[BRIDGE]
```
                 D
Iâ€™ll be biblical boy
E
So oh oh oh oh ooo
```

[CHORUS 2x]

```
          A
It takes time it takes two

You better wait for me to, you better
D                         A
Wait for me to to come back
                 D
To make our comeback you better

        A
Does it hurt now
                 D
And the pain will explode
      E                               G
Is it hard when you're running down that road
                    A
While carrying that load

      A
So release me
                 D
And I'll make you aware
             E
That it takes time, it takes two
      G               A
To make old into new I swear

[BRIDGE]
[CHORUS 2x]

A               D
You better come back
                 A
You better come back
                 D
You better come back
                 A
You better come back ...

      A
It's time to run
The gangs will come
Oh I left my gun, I left my gun ...
