

Breaking the Chain

Sum 41

Intro: F#m x2

F#m            A
Here as I stand,
          E4                            E
All the signs become so clear
          F#m
To get back home again
          A                            E4    E
Sometimes I lose my way, hey
          D
Because I m bound to fall and I just lose it all
          E
Am I running outta time?

F#m
I m breaking the chain
          A
From the life I knew
          E
Being black and blue
          D                            F#m
It s time to be face to face
          A                            E                            C
With the lies I choose or the truth into the lie
          F#m
I make no mistake
          A
I ve paid my price
          E                            D                            F#m
I ve done my time with the devil in disguise
          A                            E                            D
Cause the life I knew has a different view tonight
          F#m
I m breaking the chain

F#m            A                            E4                            E
Days passed me by like I m seven wasted time
          F#m                            A                            E4            E
I m not alright, I think I m falling for the lie
          D
And as it fades to black, I m not looking back

E

I m still blinded by the lies
