

Endless Miles
Sundowner

G

All the winter birds sing my name

Em7

C

I walk through these same old alleys again

G

Silver grains of light fall down

Em7

C

The pavement is silent now

-----
G

Anxiety is my old friend

Em7

C

I always hate seeing him again

G

I turn up the TV loud

Em7

F#maj7

And make it like someone else is home

-----
Em7      F#maj7      G              C

Brown line              moves north

Em      F#maj7              C

Red eyes              no more

Em7      F#maj7      G              C

Sun      break              through clouds

Em      F#maj7              C

My concrete heart melts

-----
G    C

I listen to the train car hum against the rails

G                              C                      F#maj7              C

I m nothing but endless miles

G    Cadd9

And since I ve got nowhere to go

Em                              F#maj7                              C

I guess I ve got nowhere I have to get to

-----
G

Color come back to my face

C    F#maj7

Sound and light return to the street

G

Faint reflection catch my eyes

Em                              C

Sunrise, sunrise

-----
G

The waiting is the hardest part

C F#maj7

Sometimes the city speaks without a tongue

G

And I could ride this train all day

Em C

Ain't got nothing but tracks ahead of me

-----

Em7 F#maj7 G C
