Song: She Came On Artist: Super Deluxe
Tabbed by: Garret Asonza (hello_pain@yahoo.com)

Standard tuning (E)

          F#
She came on

        G#
like a storm

            B
from the blind side of a memory

            F#
soft and warm

      G#                E     C#m
left me sea-sick on the shore

          F#
she believed

            G#
she could prove

      B
it was her world that I needed

     F#                G#              E      C#m
but I left her for someone I wanted more

Bb                    Eb
always using clever words to hide the truth

Bb                    Eb          C#m      (pause)
communicating in the ignorance of youth

            B                        G#
still I believe that my delusions are realities within confusion

 E                                  C#m
I accept the consequences for my lack of innocence

```
       F#
she was wrong

          G#
sunshine bright

              B
flaunting careless situations

         F# guarded wit

           G#              E       C#m always answering just because

         F#
wild cliche

          G#
I m discreet

        B
waking up from perfect dreaming

        F#          G#               E       C#m
when I realized I want what never was

Bb                       Eb
always using clever words to hide the truth

Bb                       Eb            C#m      (pause)
communicating in the ignorance of youth

            B                            G#
still I believe that my delusions are realities within confusion

 E                                C#m
I accept the consequences for my lack of innocence

Instrumental: F# G# B   F# G# E-C#m   (play pattern twice)

G#      B                         F#
why do I just refuse to disagree

                C#m

```
with what I believe

G#          B                      F#
I found myself wandering aimlessly

                   C#m       (pause)
calling it freedom

          F#
She came on

        G#
like a storm

          B
from the blind side of a memory

          F#
soft and warm

        G#                E      C#m
left me sea-sick on the shore

           F#
yeah, she believed

          G#
she could prove

        B
it was her world that I needed

      F#                G#              E      C#m
but I left her for someone I wanted more

         F#    G#   B
I wanted more

       F#    G#                    E       C#m
I wanted more yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
