I hold it all to the love in her eyes

Bm/A A

Lord knows I can feel her, see her, in my mind And her spoken words ring through my head Though I m lost, I can hear them calling me there

Amaj7 Bm (Bm/A)

Hey, the song, do you feel (feel)

Amaj7 Bm (E)

Leave your light on through the night

Amaj7 Bm (Bm/A)

Love (love) and loss so dear

C#m Bm E (A)

You know it s a long way home

Well a lonely road to the promised land
May be long but I see the end some day
To broken lives on the mountain side
Out in the cold, kinda hurried shifting sands

They re in the other world to where you lie Pulling your heart then the ravens say goodbye

Hey, the song, do you feel?
And leave your light on tonight
Loss, from so dear
You know it s a long way home
