E E/C# C#m

I hold it all to the love in her eyes

C#m/A B

Lord knows I can feel her, see her, in my mind

And her spoken words ring through my head

Though I m lost, I can hear them calling me there

Bmaj7 C#m (C#m/A)

Hey, the song, do you feel (feel)

Bmaj7 C#m (F#)

Leave your light on through the night

Bmaj7 C#m (C#m/A)

Love (love) and loss so dear

Ebm C#m F# (B)

You know it s a long way home

Well a lonely road to the promised land

May be long but I see the end some day

To broken lives on the mountain side

Out in the cold, kinda hurried shifting sands

They re in the other world to where you lie

Pulling your heart then the ravens say goodbye

Hey, the song, do you feel?

And leave your light on tonight

Loss, from so dear

You know it s a long way home
