

Miranda Acoustic
Surfer Blood

Hey, this is my first UG submission. I figured it out by listening to the track on Tarot Classics and watching their vids online. All chords are barred except for the E and the Em. Also, the first barred G chord in the bridge is actually played as a barred G13 by John Paul Pitts (which gives it an added twang) but since this is a novice tab I thought I'd scribe it as a regular G. If the song is played on electric, just switch some of the standard chords for power chords to make it rock. Enjoy! Matt.
