[Verse 1]

G#      A#                      Cm
I ve heard talk of blind devotion

Lovers through thick and thin

Lives touched with real emotion

Faithful till the bitter end

I ve lost in far too many affairs
G#                      A#                      Gm                      Cm
I ve seen all the pain that the morning can bring

C#
I need to prove to myself

Can you convince me

It s not just a physical rush

Just another one night stand

I need to know that there s someone who cares

Could you be the angel to answer my prayers
