Age of sixteen I was on the road,
Doin' things you've never seen
(h)An I've been used; I've been confused,
Tryin' to live the life I lead

You can't put the blame on me
(h)I've been misunderstood
Never could get satisfied
Livin' how you think I should

Don't tell me what to do
And don't tell me how to spend my time
I ain't got nothin' to hide
I'm free to be what I wanna be (h)An nobody owns my mind
I've got my sunshine eyes
And I've got my sunshine smile
I maybe lonesome at times
I'm free to be where I wanna be
And nobody owns my time

Packed my bags and I'm on my way
Don't know what I'm gonna find (h)I'll just take what comes today
leave it all behind

E E E B F#m F#m F#m : E Eb :

It's all right now, don't you worry
If you feel you've got to roam
A Rollin' Stone can't lean on no-one
They gotta keep movin' on
