The chords for the intro and verse and really the whole song are;
C///Em///Am///C/G/ x3

I m waiting for the wind to come,
And carry me away
Across the oceans and the stars,
I ve been waiting every day.
And if you should hear my name,
Don t let anybody say
I ve been hiding for a while,
I m just tryna get away.

(Same underlying chords, although they drop out, just improvise or keep playing the same)

But you are,
My only escape.
And you are,
The only way, yeah.

So let s talk,
That s all we ll do, just talk,
And when we re through we ll know,
We won t have to keep on waiting, oh.
So let s talk,
That s all we ll do, just talk,
And when we re through we ll know,
We won t have to keep on waiting, oh.
So let s talk,
That s all we ll do, just talk,
And when we re through we ll know,
We won t have to keep on waiting, waiting, waiting.

Hey, hey, hey...

The vocals in the intro are this btw
