Bridge:

This part s tricky. The first couple chords, you strike twice and mute, then go to the next one. It would really help to watch a video while learning this part.

F# C#m (D* A/C# Bm* A*) whole thing x3

Chords in parentheses are only struck twice before moving on.

F# C#m D* Dmaj7 D

Pre-Chorus, end D play with high e string to change sound like Jon does every two strokes

Chorus til end

There you go! That s how i play it, and it sounds right to me.
