Yeah, without wonder, how could life ever be wonderful
Yeah!
But it s never to late to try
                                                     Fm
It s never to late to finally find a way to make you right
Happily ever
                     Bb
I don t need no alibis
I just need you by my side
I m telling you one more time
It s never to late to begin forever
Bridge
                       Am
                                G
What s it worth if it costs you all your hope?
                              G
 You and me, we got stories to unfold
Like a hammer without a nail
Like a ship without a sail
Like I m all dressed up, but nowhere left to go
Without you, without you, it means nothing, nothing
Without you, without you, it means nothing
 It s never to late to try
It s never to late to finally find a way to make you right
Happily ever
 I don t need nothing money could buy
```

Like a man who won the world and lost his soul

I just need you by my side
I m telling you one more time
 Fm
It s never to late to begin forever
