

Faust Midas And Myself Switchfoot

(intro 2x) Bm A G

Bm A Em
This one's about a dream

I had last night

Bm A Em
How an old man tracked me home

And stepped inside

Bm A Em
He put his foot inside the door

G
And gave a crooked smile

F#m
Something in his eyes

G
Something in his laugh

F#
Something in his voice

That made my skin crawl off

Bm A Em
He said, I've seen you here before

I know your name

Bm A Em
You could have your pick

of pretty things

Bm A Em
You could have it all

G
Everything at once

F#m
Everything you've seen,

G
Everything you'll need,

F#
Everything you've ever had in fantasies?

Bm A
You've one life, You've one life

G
You've one life left to lead

Bm A

You've one life, You've one life

G

You've one life left to lead?

Bm A

Em

I woke up from my dream

As a golden man

Bm A

Em

With a girl I've never seen

With golden skin

Bm A

Em

I jumped up to my feet

G

She asked me what was wrong

F#m

I began to scream

G

I don't think this is me

F#

Is this just a dream or really happening?

Bm

A

You've one life, You've one life

G

You've one life left to lead

Bm

A

You've one life, You've one life

G

You've one life left to lead?

G

What direction?

A

What direction?

Bm

I'm splitting up! I'm splitting up!

D

This is my personal disaffection

G

What direction? What direction?

What direction now?

Bm A

Em

I looked outside the glass

At golden shores

Bm A

Em

Golden ships and masts

With golden cords

Bm A Em
As my reflection passed

G
I hated what I saw

F#m
My golden eyes were dead

G
And a thought passed through my head

F#
A heart that is made of gold can't really beat at all

G
I wanted to wake up again

F#m
I wanted to wake up again

F
Without a touch of gold

G A
Without a touch of gold

G A
What direction?

Bm D
What direction?

G A
What direction? What direction?

Bm
What direction? (Death or action!)

D
Life begins at the intersection

G A
What direction? What direction?

What direction now?

Bm A Em
I woke up as before

But the gold was gone

Bm A Em
My wife was at the door

With her night robe on

Bm A Em
My heart beat once or twice

G
And life flooded my veins

F#m
Everything had changed

G
My lungs had found their voice

F#
And what was once routine was now the perfect joy

Bm A
You?ve one life, You?ve one life

G
You?ve one life left to lead

Bm A
You?ve one life, You?ve one life

G
You?ve one life left to lead?
