

Hope Is The Anthem
Switchfoot

Intro: D A Bm7 D A Bm7

verse 1

Sometimes what you need is what you fight
Like a wounded man out on the run
Like shadows hiding from the light
But your love is what I was running from Hope's a seed you have to sow
When you let it go it comes to life
So you stretch your arrows on the bow
And you pull them back and watch them fly

My heartbeat, my oxygen
My banner, my home
My future, my song
Your hope is the anthem of my soul, oh whoa
oh whoa

verse 2

My lungs and I were born to fight Sometimes I'm not sure what I'm fighting for But death ain't the only end in sight
'Cause this ain't a battle it's a lifelong war
