In this world of news, I ve found nothing new. I ve found nothing pure Bm
Maybe I m just idealistic to assume that truth, could be fact and form A/F#
That love could be a verb, maybe I m just a little misinformed D

As the dead moon rises, and the freeways sigh
Let the trains watch over the tides and the mist
Spinning circles in our sky s tonight
Let the trucks roll in from Los Angeles
Maybe our stars are unanimously tired

Let your love be strong, and I don t care what goes down Bm G D
Let your love be strong enough to weather through the thunder cloud Bm A D G
Fury and thunder clap like stealing the fire from your eyes Bm Bb F G D
All of my world hanging on your love Em F#m G D

Let the wars begin, let my strength wear thin
Let my fingers crack, let my world fall apart
Train the monkeys on my back to fight
Let it start tonight
When my world explodes, when my stars touch the ground
Falling down like broken satellites
