

Swan Lee
Syd Barrett

#-----PLEASE NOTE-----#
#This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the # #song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. #
#-----#

#

Date: Fri, 17 May 1996 22:22:00 -0400 (EDT)
From: Terry Marks <a013645t@bcfreenet.seflin.lib.fl.us>

@SONG: Swan Lee
Chorus Riff

[tab]e:-----|
B:-1-4-1-----|
G:-----3s1s3-----|
D:-----4s2s4-----|[/tab]

[tab]G#
Swan Lee got up at the runningford powwow and headed from the[/tab]
[tab] B
fire to his waiting canoe.[/tab]
[tab]G# B
Juttering squaw untied the wigwam door, the chief blew[/tab]
[tab] C#
smokerings two by two[/tab]

[tab]G#
The land in silence stands[/tab]

Swan Lee, his boat by a by the bank in the darkness loosened
the rope from the creepers entwined
A feather from the wing of a wild young eagle pointed to the land where his fortune he d find

The land in silence stands

Swan Lee paddled on from the land of his fathers his eyes scanned the undergrowth on either side from the shore hung a hot heavy creature infested tropic, Swan Lee had a bow by his side

Swan Lee got in half on land half on water grizzly bear and raccoon his fair
he followed his ears to the great waterfall for Swan Lee knew people and his squaw was there

the land in silence stands

Suddenly the rush of the mighty great thunder confronted Swan
Lee as this song he sang
In the dawn with his squaw, he was battling homewards, it was all written down by long Silas Lang

Terry "The Human Mellotron" Marks
a013645t@bcfreenet.seflin.lib.fl.us