

Fizzy Symposium

Symposium , Fizzy

Mike McConnell

Fizzy Tabbed by Mike McConnell

This song is cool especially when the gang did it with Suggs at Reading 99 .
Looking forward to the new album . This song is cool played Electric or acoustic
. If your playing electric play it as it is but if your playing acoustic suplement G for this in the verses .

320010

as it gives it a slight edge . See you at the gigs .

Mike

Intro Am

Am C G
And once more I m feeling sore the room is spinning round me

Am C G
Too much drink the night before at least I slept soundly

G D Am C
Mothers in the kitchen peeling carrotts by the light of one bare bulb
G D Am C

Daddy s in the dark outside he s had too much to drink again tonight

Am C G
You again I m back again sitting on his sofa

Am C G
Nothing s on the tee-vee tonight why don t you come over?

G D Am C
Meet you by John Menzies we ll go down beside the river Thames this evening

G D Am C
I ll drink what I always drink and we ll talk about things which have No meaning

C G D Am
We re always looking for something to hold on to

C G D Am
We re with our friends they re the best things we can find

C G D Am
We don t belong here but where else can we go to?

C G D Am
It s far too late now to stop

Am C G
Haft past ten same again and we ll be going home soon

Am C G
Don t know why I feel so high maybe it s the full moon

G D Am C
Walking down this street again this street I ve walked ten thousand times before

G D Am C

Wind is at my back again good night my friends I m back indoors again

C G D Am

We re always looking for something to hold on to

C G D Am

We re with our friends they re the best things we can find

C G D Am

We don t belong here but where else can we go to?

C G D Am

It s far too late now to stop

Repeat intro

G D Am C

Meet you by John Menzies we ll go down beside the river Thames this evening

G D Am C

I ll drink what I always drink and we ll talk about things which have no meaning