All these beauties in solid motion

Hi hi hi hi hi,
One time too many
Too far to go
I, we come to take you home

(as above)
And when they split those atoms
It s hotter than the sun
Blood is a special substance
They gonna pray for that man

So wake up young lovers
The whole thing is over
Watch but touch monkeys
All that blood, gonna swallow you whole

Hi hi hi hi hi
What s that? Who s driving?
Where we goin ? Who knows?
I, we come to take you home
