G# Gm F# Gm
All those things I ever thought would never end,
C# Bbm
To think they now are memories
C# Ebmaj7/Bb
Since we re in the band
G# Gm F# Gm
Watch the airplanes swaying, coming in to land
C# Bbm C# Ebmaj7/Bb
Then my world is hanging in someone else s hands
G# Gm F# Gm
And if I have done something, you have to let me go
C# Bbm C# Ebmaj7/Bb
Think of me as someone, someone that you know
G# Gm F# Gm
But if I don t hear something, pretty soon from now, ill
C# Bbm C# C#7
disconnect completely, see how that works out
C# Bbm
C#/G C#7

G#m G#m/Bb G#m/E F# G#m
I wasn t daring, not much a chancer
G#m G#m/Bb C#m F# G#m
Oh my darling, why won t you answer?
G#m G#m/Bb G#m/E F# G#m
Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
G#m G#m/Bb C#m F# G#m
Sun s comin up now, I guess it s over.
G#m G#m/Bb G#m/E F#
G#m
Playing his guitar while he s dying of cancer
G#m G#m/Bb C#m F# G#m
Oh my father, why won t you answer?

G#m G#m/Bb G#m/E F# G#m
 Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
G#m G#m/Bb C#m F# G#m
 Sun s comin up now, I guess it s over.

The guitar noise that follows, uses mainly these chords:

C Gm
 And
C#m Bm G#maj7

Since the piano part is played in 3/4 tempo, the bottom note of the chord is often played as the bass.

Look at the intro part - and listen to the song - to get the rhythm right.
