Cigar Tamino [Verse] Em C G You, look at me now, with those hollow eye sockets and smile D And it seems all a lie, what they've told me so far Em C G And you, show me that life isn't all about extending your time G No, it's the perfect time for a bottle of wine [Verse] в7 Em C G D Em Why do I still care about all who might recall me G D For everything dies, so does memory Em C G And why, am I still surprised, about all who pray their sins away C D Aren't they too a part of this grand ballet [Chorus] в7 в7 When time occurs, don't make it right в7 C в7 Don't make me right, it's me to decide: this or that side в7 This or that side [Verse] Em C G Death suits you dear sir, like a beautiful coat but then without all the fur G D I wonder would it fit me? What would you have me prefer в7 Em G Em You know, some people would rather not exist, they put a gun to the heart or a knife to the wrist We all think they aren t smart, but it could be something I missed [Verse] в7 \mathbf{Em} G But then she kisses my skin, I don t know what this is or where to begin D This fills me up with bliss, don t tell me this was a dream Em C G D

And she shows me that life isn t all about explaining your time

No, it s the perfect time, to lay all night [Chorus] B7 Em B7 C When time occurs, don't make it right B7 C B7 C B7 C Don't make me right, it's me to decide: this or that side B7 Em B7 C I need your word, leave it aside B7 C B7 C B7 Just don't make me right, it's me to decide: this or that side в7 С This or that side B7 Em This or that side [Outro] G C Em You look at me now, with that burning cigar hanging out of your mouth C G D Em And it seems all a lie what they we told me so far
