My Arms Stay Open Late Tammy Wynette

My Arms Stay Open Late

A E7

The baby cries I could almost die from lonesome

Α

The late shows gone and the coffee s on, think I'll read some

A7

Somewhere out there my love you share and your thoughts are far from home \mathbf{r}^7

But when the lights on Broadway go off and every honky-tonk is closed up ${f E7}$

My arms stay open late so you ll come home

What you do is wrong but my love stays strong for you
I don't think I ll change a thing at all, I might lose you
Though it's almost dawn and you re still not home I ll wait here patiently
The lights to my love never go off and the door to my heart don't close up
My arms stay open late so you ll come home
My arms stay open late so you ll come home
