When I hear your footsteps at my door
D G
When I hear you walkin up to my door

When you reach for me and take my hand

You make me know that you re my man

C G C

And I ll hold you and kiss you and warm you and love you

Cause I know that some day you ll find

) (

You re safe in these lovin arms of mine

I know what men are made of cause I ve been around a few They ll use you for awhile and leave you cold You may cheat and run around cause you gotta have your fun But like I told you many times before You ll always have the key to my front door
