

Starting Over

Tammy Wynette

Starting Over

A E D A
Wondering where the hours go, catching up on TV shows
D A Bm E
It s not easy, heaven knows, when you re starting over
A E D A
Knowing that the phone won t ring back to being lonely me
D A Bm E A
Funny how I seem to be always starting over

Chorus:

D A E A A7
Foolish me, I never meant, almost heal then break again
D A Bm E
Look at how I ve always been starting over

So just when the hurt is through, I ll see a face across a room
And wonder if it s still too soon to be starting over
But like a fool I ll give my heart then the same old thing will start
I ll watch it slowly fall apart then I ll be starting over

Chorus
