A B7 E
Itâ€™s a grand divorce going out off business sale
D E
Odds and ends from two people whose love donâ€™t gel
A C#m D A
She will take the baby and heâ€™ll keep the house
 D B7 E A
At this grand divorce, going, going out off business sale

(up1/2 measure)
Who will take this photograph of two kids in love
Make it more than a dollar, friend, cause thatâ€™s not enough
Who will buy their coffee cups where lips of love have failed
At this grand divorce, going, going out off business sale

(up1/2 measure)
There they stand in an empty room, everything is sold
Hating to break away and walk out in the cold
Two grown-ups and a baby with nothing but themselves
Itâ€™s a grand divorce, going, going out off business sale
