D

The weather man said there was a pretty good chance

G

Of a big one coming that night

D

Everybody in town was locking it down

G

Closing shutters and finding flash lights

D

Oh but daddy s intuition is sharper then a knife

G

Said the rain don t come til the robin takes flight

A

And he smiled like he always does

We stayed out until the sun came up

Chorus

D

And we counted our blessings one by one

G

And the wind and the thunder never did come

We just sat there talking, laughing like fools

Nobody watching but the man in the moon

D

And the whole world slept that perfect night

G

I learned a little bout living and a lot about life

A

Out there in the backyard

Bm

D

Just me and him and 538 stars

D

Some shimmered and shined like big diamond rings

G

Some sank into the milky way

D

He told me about the one who led the three kings

G

To the stable on Christmas Day

D

He always made it easy for me to understand

G

Said we re all a part of a much bigger plan

A

And he smiled like he always does
We stayed out until the sun came up

Chorus

D

And we counted our blessings one by one

G

And the wind and the thunder never did come

We just sat there talking, laughing like fools
Nobody watching but the man in the moon

D

And the whole world slept that perfect night

Bm

We watched the world

G

Just the two of us

Bm

Like it always is

G

Like it always was

Chorus

D

And we counted our blessings one by one

G

And the wind and the thunder never did come

We just sat there talking, laughing like fools
Nobody watching but the man in the moon
