I could never make you want me like I wanted to be wanted
 I could never really change you like I thought that I could
 I was tryna make us something out of nothing, we were nothing at all
 You can only dig the grave so deep, you can only try to save something
 That s not already gone

That s not already gone
 That s not already gone,
 no

You had me, you had me for a minute
 The sad thing is you never would admit
 That you had me, you had me for a minute there
 Oooooooh, you had me for a minute there, no

I could never make you want me like I wanted to be wanted
 I could never really change you like I thought that I could
 You can only dig the grave so deep, save something
