C
Are you okay?

Em
Cause you re the one who needed space

Am
And finally now I m doing fine

F
You would rather see me cry-y-y

C
Are you okay?

Em
You re acting like we never changed

Am
And finally I can sleep at night

F
Makes you wanna lose your mind

C
I know that you ve been scared of love

Em
And everything it did to us

Am
But how am I supposed to open up

F
When you were just so good at closing off?

C
You re up and down, I m inside out

Em
You ripped my heart right from my mouth

Am
And then I had to go and pick it up

F
And play it like I didn t give a fuck

C
You called up my phone fifty times from that party

Em
3AM, you thought I d be there in a heartbeat

Am
It s your life but you might wanna put down the Bacardi

F
Mean this sincerely, dude

C
Are you okay?

Don t got time to listen anyway
