

American Boy
Taylor Swift

This was on Taylors demo when she was 12 or 13. A really pretty song and there weren't any other tabs of it so... here.

Capo on 2nd fret

G
American boy
D
Living life as it goes.
Am C
Sittin on the fencepost
G
Livin in the light.

G
American boy
D
Livin in the real world.
Am C
Tryin just to get the girl
G
Tryin to survive.

G D
The simple things in life are always new
Am C
Growing up on Sand Hill Avenue.
G D
And mama makes her cookies and daddy's just
Am C
The greatest living hero that ever was.
G D Am
Nothing in this world can ever once destroy
C G
The hope of an American boy.

D
Livin off of bar tips
Am C
Tryin for relationships.
G
Lookin for love.

G
Suddenly he finds
D
An American beauty

Am C
Suddenly it hits:
G
Sheâ€™s sent from above.

G D Am C

G D
The simple things in life are always new

Am C
Growing up on Sand Hill Avenue.

G C
And mama makes her cookies and daddyâ€™s just

Am C
The greatest living hero that ever was.

G D Am
Nothing in this world can ever once destroy

C G
The dream of an American boy.

G G G G G

G
American boy
D
Raising little baby,
Am C
Keeps hearing â€œDaddy, maybe
G
Iâ€™ll be like you.â€•

G
Suddenly alive,
D
Seems just like a new toy.
Am C
Thereâ€™s strong love
G
American boy.

G D
The simple things in life are always new
Am C
Growing up on Grand View Avenue.
G D
And mama makes her cookies and daddyâ€™s just
Am C
The greatest living hero that ever was.
G D Am C

Nothing in this world will ever once destroy

G

D

Am

No, nothing in this world will ever once destroy

C

G

G

G

G

G

The hope of an American boy.