Verse 1:

D A Em
Live down the street in a broken down house

The moment we meet, there was never a doubt

That we won't forget this Sunday

All my friends are saying

Girl, what are you thinking?

You're better off, you're better off without him

Find yourself another

You're better off, you're better off

They can talk forever, they just don't know better
