      E
 You said it in a simple way

 4 am the second day

Spinning faster than the plane that took you

```
E                                    B
 This is when the feeling sinks in
                                C#m
 I dont wanna miss you like this
                    A
Come back, be here
                    E
Come back, be here
                              B
 I guess you re in New York today
                          C#m

 The delicate beginning rush

 The feeling you can know so much

 Without knowing anything at all
```

```
         E
And now that I can put this down
    B
If I had known what I know now
   C#m
I never would have played
           A
So nonchalance
```

```
       B
 Taxi cabs and busy streets
            C#m
 They never bring you back to me

 I can t help but wish you took me with you
```

```

Come back, be here
```
