

Nashville
Taylor Swift

Intro: G Cadd9 Em7 D

Cadd9 G
On a childhood highway through a night alone
Em7 D
I was barely breathing, I was crawling home
Cadd9 G
Well it s not quite London or the south of France
Em7 D
Or an Asian island or a second chance

G Cadd9
Going back to Nashville, thinking about the whole thing
Em7 Cadd9
Guess you gotta run sometimes
G Cadd9
Maybe I m a fast train rolling down a mountain
Em7 D
Watching all my life go by

Cadd9 G
You re a distant memory, you re an exit sign
Em7 D
I was talking crazy on the driver s side
Cadd9 G
And I know I hurt you but I can t confess
Em7 D
Was that blood or a wine stain on your wedding dress?

G Cadd9
Going back to Nashville, thinking about the whole thing
Em7 D
Guess you gotta run sometimes
G Cadd9
Maybe I m a fast train rolling down a mountain
Em7 D
Watching all my life go by

G Cadd9
Going back to Nashville, laughing at a bad break
Em7 D
What s the use in wondering why?
G Cadd9
Baby, I m a storm front blowing through the valley
Em7 D
Tearing up a good July

D Cadd9

And it s safe and warm where nothing ever happens

G Em7 Cadd9

Would it be so hard to realign a star or two?

Em7 Cadd9

Change a southern night for you

Cadd9 G

Well it s not quite evening and it s not New York

Em7 D

There s a scar in the blue sky by the old airport

Cadd9 G

And I m talking crazy on the driver s side

Em7 D

I will always love you like a long goodbye
