G                        Em
I can t believe you did it again
C              D
Walked by and took my heart with you
G                    Em
Why d you have to look so good
C            D
Don t you know I m trying to hate you
C      D
Trying to have a dream without you in it
C                    D
But how can I put out this fire, when you re the one that lit it

          G            Em     C      D   G        Em          C      D
I can t wait for the day I stop pretending that I m really okay, when I m not
        Em          C          G          A
I wanna know how it feels to be over you for real
        C                G  Em  C  D
Till I do, I ll keep writing songs about you

G                        Em
Iâ€™ve got a stack of papers so high
C          D
And it s all about you baby
G              Em
Keep thinking maybe I
C                D
Could make sense of something crazy
C                D
Something I can t get out of my head
  C                                                      D

I write your name, I write your name, then I tear it all to shreds

```
      G              Em    C     D    G       Em        C      D
I can t wait for the day I stop pretending that I m really okay, when I m not
        Em           C         G           A
I wanna know how it feels to be over you for real
        C                   G    Em   C   D
Till I do, I ll keep writing songs about you
```

```
C                                        G
And if you ever change your mind and want me back again
C                                   D
I hope these songs will remind me why I shouldn t let you in
```

```
      G              Em    C     D    G       Em        C      D
I can t wait for the day I stop pretending that I m really okay, cause I m not
        Em           C         G           A
I wanna know how it feels to be over you for real

Till I doâ€¦
      G              Em    C     D    G       Em        C      D
