Tea Leaf Green - Easy to be Your Lover
Standard Tuning

Em C
oh our love is like your long hair G D
each full of twists and tangles Em C
and the fruit that you bare G A
is of a fallen angel

by day we work it all out by night it s tangled again is this a punishment or just the way love is

C D Em
it s easy to be your lover
A7 C Em
it s so hard being your man
C D Em
i could never let another
be the man you demand there was a time we never worried how much a night would allow how fast the days do past but morning forces us to dress go out and work some kind of job all i want to do is rest in your arms

you ve said i cannot stray if i pretend to love that you will not stay if i break my promise yes i break my promise and i let the light die bite into a fruit i was forbidden to try
