

The Watcher
Tea Party

|-----THE-WATCHER-----|

Song: The Watcher
Written & Performed: The Tea Party
Album: Seven Circles (2004)
Tabbed by: Taimur S.

Hi all,

This is a fantastic song that I can't believe I had not heard until 2011. It's a shame for The Tea Party who, while not exactly my cup of tea musically, are a very talented band.

I had a look around to see if anyone had tabbed this and couldn't find anything so I've put down the chords here for now, while I work out the lead guitar bits. The Tea Party often use unconventional tuning so feel free to refine the standard tuning progression I've used here.
