

Looking For A Girl

Teddy Thompson

[Intro]

C

[Verse]

C

I ve been looking for a girl who won t scream and shout

C

When I disappear for weeks like a roustabout

C

This kind of good loving is hard to find

C

The perfect combination of the cruel and kind

[Chorus]

F

I ve been looking for a girl

C

I ve been looking for a girl

G

F

C

I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me

[Verse]

C

I ve been looking for a girl who is good in bed

C

Who knows when it s time to knock it on the head

C

I guess it s good loving that I want the most

C

Someone who turns my bread into buttered toast

[Chorus]

F

I ve been looking for a girl

C

I ve been looking for a girl

G

F

C

I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me

[Verse 3]

C

I ve been looking for a girl who drinks and smokes

C

Who takes a lot of drugs and can take a joke

C

Where does this girl of mine hide herself away?

C

Whoever she is I hope she s on her way

[Chorus]

F
I ve been looking for a girl
C
I ve been looking for a girl
G F C Am
I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me

[Bridge]

G F C
I see those couples going streaming by
G C Am
Looking so easy, like they don t even try
G F C
It s like a magic trick or sleight of hand
G Dm7 C
Sawn in half by a golden band

[Verse]

C
I ve been looking for a girl easy on the eyes
C
But not so stupid that I want to cry
C
I know god doesn t give with both his hands
C
So I guess I just need someone I can stand

[Chorus]

F
I ve been looking for a girl
C
I ve been looking for a girl
G F C
I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me
G F C
Yeah, yeah, I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me
G F C
Woahh, I ve been looking for a girl who knows how to love me