

Restless And Wandering
Ten Mile Tide

Restless and Wandering

F#M D
So many miles through desert sage,

So many mistakes Ive made

A E7
I stop for shade and see her wave

F#M D
A face thats hard and lined, With stories, roads, and time

A E7
But her eyes shine Into mine

F#M D A
In another time with a different start, Where the heavens part we shared a
E7

he--art.

F#M D A E7
She never spoke a word, but in my mind I heard all she endured

CHORUS:

A D E7
You are not the only one whose lost

A D E7
Yours is not the only heart feels pain

F#M Cm D A
Weve walked together on countless rainy nights

D A E7
Restless and wandering in the rain

D A E7
Restless and wandering again

F#m D
For a hundred miles or more, I saw the smile she wore

A E7
Like an open door, To a distant shore

F#m D
When I stopped again to rest, With a beating chest

A E7
Ive tried my best, To find a test

F#m D
I saw another man, Beside a garbage can

A E7
His stained hands, Like mottled sand

F#m D
And as he looked at me, So calm and carefully

A E7
My eyes could see, and he said (To CHORUS)

F#m D

Now everyone I meet, on every forgotten street

A E7

I feel their hearts beat, with noble heat

F#m D

The countless times theyve tried, the tears of rage they cried.

A E7

The love thats died, deep inside

F#m D

We all are heaven bound, this is our proving ground

A E7 F#m D

The life chose, when the wheel came round. I believe in eternity and chosen destiny, And Ill help you if you help me.

A E7

(To CHORUS)
