Intro : E C#m A B

E                     C#m
You.... Did it again
                A
You did hurt My heart
                     B i dont know how many times
      E                    C#m
oh.. you, i dont know what to say
                A
you make me so desperately in love
      B and now you let me down

                C#m
You said, you never lie again
                 B
you said, this time would be so right
            A
But then i found you were lying there
by her side
```

Reff:
```
        E Oh.... You,
                  C#m
You turn My whole Life So blue
            A drowning me so deep
              B i just can t reach my self again E
oh you...
            C#m successfully tore my heart
              A
now, its only pieces
     B                         E
oh nothing left but pieces of you
```

```
        E Oh... You
```

```
                        C#m
Frustrated me with this love
                        A
i ve been trying to understand
      B
you know that im trying and im trying E
Oh... You
                        C#m
I don t know what to say
                A
you make me so desperately in love
