Beyond Words

Verse 1:

Well if you only knew the pain that I ve been through.
Since when did it become all about you?
As you can see right from the start I ve said the truth
And if the truth means nothing to you, then what am I supposed to do?

Chorus:

And I ll still love you,
Beyond what words can say.
I ll take your every suffering moment,
And bring a better day.
I ll still love you,
More than what I hope to be.
Let me wrap my arms around you,
Let me take your breath away.

Verse 2: (same chords as verse 1)

And every time I ask you assure you re doing fine.
But your heart looks good by smiling, You couldn t fool mine.
And by the end of the night your pillow sits to dry.
In a crowded room you re singing, but on the inside you sigh.

[Chorus]
