

The Truth Is Who You Are
Tenth Avenue North

G D
It would be easier if You were just a thought in my head
C
Simply something I once read
G
A belief needing my defense
G D
And it would be easier if You were something I once knew
C
A hope just to hold on to
G
But You re holding out Your hands

Chorus:

C Em G D
You came to take us back to the start.
C Em G D
You came to touch the hardness of our hearts.
C Em G D
You gave us truth, that truth is who You are.
C Em G D
It s who You are.

G D
It s not enough to just say I believe
C
Cause truth is that talk is cheap
G
So grace give me eyes to see

Chorus (Repeat last line once)

C Em G D
Flesh and blood You offer us.
C Em G D
Oh to eat the bread and drink the cup.
C Em G D
Oh to taste, to see, to feel, to touch
C Em G D C Em G D
Emmanuel, God with us. Emmanuel, God with us.

Interlude: G, D, C, Em X2

C Em G D
Cause You came to break the chains apart
