13th Floor Elevators- Everybody Needs Somebody To Love
13th Floor Elevators-Live

Tabbed by: Perattzi

Originally done by Solomon Burke in the early 60 s...the Stones and others also covered it it s a great soulful song, and in the Elevators version Roky changes up the lyrics a bit. And Stacey Sutherland really lays down a cool little solo (I can t tab it, so if anyone wants to that would be sweet!). Enjoy!

Tuning: EADGBE
