The 69 Eyes
Red (the 69 eyes)
C#m
Hopefully you ll get what you wanted
And hopefully you ll get what you need
The taste of blood is always lonely
Cuts you like a heart of steel
C#m
And Hopefully you ll get you wanted
And hopefully you ll get what you need
                          C#m
When something is broken
Left wide open
Don t say you need me it s too late
F#
I cannot say
                          C#m
When something is broken
C#m
Hopefully you ll get what you wanted
And hopefully you ll get what you need
Red is like you always told me
F#
The colour of what is real
                               C#m
When something is broken
Don t say you need me it s too late
I cannot say
C#m
When something is broken (broken)
